About the course
The FIDE Academy "Uppsala Chess+ Academy" together with “Jussupow Schachschule’ conducts a FIDE Trainers' Commission trainer seminar for the acquisition of FIDE trainer titles.
The lecturers Artur Jussupow and Jesper Bergmark Hall will talk about their personal experiences and experiences as coaches and players. This will give the participants the opportunity to learn directly from training methods of the world's top players, children's and youth training, as well as chess training at various levels. In the panel discussions, all the topics can be reflected upon once again.
The lecturers have got long experience of chess training on all levels and hold the title of FIDE Senior Trainer.

Participants
Participation is neither regionally limited nor in terms of playing strength. Pre-qualifications are not necessary. However, the seminar is limited to 30 participants. The places will be allocated after receipt of registration.
